

Help for Homeowners: Free Foreclosure Prevention Workshops

- Are you having problems making your monthly mortgage payment?
- Do you owe more on your home than it is worth?
- Do you want to learn how to talk to your lender?

Stop Foreclosure!

Local community agencies want to help. Join us for a free educational workshop and understand more about your options. Learn how to contact your lender and what to say. Understand important terms, and learn the right questions to ask. Know your options under the federal "Making Home Affordable" loan modification plan.

Free workshops offered from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. on:

November 10:	Church of Peace, 1114 12th Street
November 24:	Hauberg Center, 1300 24th Street
December 8:	Moline Public Library, 3210 41st Street
December 22:	Rock Island Public Library, 401 19th Street

To register, please call any of these agencies:

Rock Island Economic Growth: 309-788-6311
Project NOW: 309-793-6391, x148
City of Moline: 309-736-5732 or 797-0724

More info: www.qcdollarwise.org. Click "Foreclosure Prevention" for course materials & helpful resources.

Funding for this program and effort includes the Doris & Victor Day Foundation and Rock Island Community Foundation.