

Access the new financial readiness application, Money Matters, through your SmartPhone browser today and begin taking steps to save money, reduce debt and build wealth.

Great for when you are on the go — Money Matters is a FREE mobile application developed by Army OneSource and is managed by the US Army Family and Morale, Welfare and Recreation Command (FMWRC), Family Programs Directorate. The goal is to motivate, educate and support Active Duty and Reserve Army Soldiers and their Families to save and plan for the future. Money Matters supports the financial focus area of Army OneSource by partnering with the Military Saves Campaign and encourages you to take the Military Saves Pledge.

Military Saves is an ongoing Department of Defense (DoD) Campaign to encourage Soldiers, their Families, and other service members to establish solid fiscal management habits through savings, debt reduction and financial planning. To start using Money Matters, simply open your mobile phone browser and enter the following link: www.myarmyonesource.com/moneymatters.

With Money Matters, you can:

- Take the "Military Saves" Pledge and encourage others to take the pledge!
- Learn how to save money, reduce debt and build wealth.
- Use the debt payment calculator to help make financial decisions.
- Get useful tips from "Military Saves" Facebook groups.
- Contact a Community Support Coordinator to learn about financial events near you.

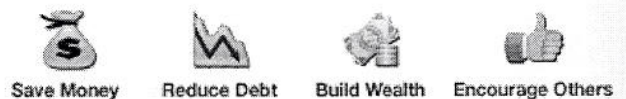

The application has been developed for mobile access and should provide a high-quality experience from Apple iPhone and iPod Touch, Android and the most current Blackberry with Operating System (OS) v5.
